A mild earthquake shock was experienced in Yokohama on the evening of the 5th inst. about a couple of minutes before eight o'clock, and a severe shaking took place the next morning twelve minutes after midnight. The movemonts, the Japan Mail says, were peculiar and very much mixed, the feeling being like what might be expected from two earthquakes occurring at the same moment and coming from opnosite directions.

Information has been received in Yokohama, we learn from the Japan Mail, to the effect that the name of a successor to Mr. Greathouse as U.S. Consul-General-was sent to the Senate for confirmation on the 15th August. The new Consul General, whose name is Gowey, is Moyor of Olympia, Washington, and President of the first National Bank there. If his appointment is confirmed, he may lie expected in Japan about the end of October.
